

Brigadier General Jon J. Miller – Commanding General
7th Civil Support Command
Deputy Commanding General
21st Theater Sustainment Command

Brigadier General Jon J. Miller was commissioned in 1978 as a Regular Army Officer at the United States Military Academy, West Point, N.Y. After entering active duty and completing the Field Artillery Officer's Basic Course and Lance Missile Officer's Course at Ft. Sill, Okla. and Ranger Course at Ft. Benning, Ga. he served as Platoon Leader, Executive Officer and Assistant Operations officer in the 3rd Battalion, 79th Field Artillery, Giessen, Germany and in the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel, Military District of Washington, Ft. McNair, Washington, D.C.

Brigadier General Miller served in Headquarters, 3rd Brigade, 49th Armor Division, Texas National Guard from 1983 until 1986.

Subsequent United States Army Reserve assignments include Public Affairs Officer, 88th ARCOM, Ft. Snelling, Minn.; Chemical Munitions Supply Officer, 310th TAACOM, Ft. Belvoir, Va.; and Commander, 611th Repair Parts Supply Company, Baltimore, Md. Upon relocation to Paris, France, Brigadier General Miller served with the 310th TAACOM (Forward) in Kaiserslautern, Germany. In 1991, he returned to the Logistics Section of the 310th TAACOM at Ft. Belvoir, Va. From 1993 to 1996 he was an instructor in the United States Army's Chemical School, Ft. McClellan, Ala.; and Liaison Officer for the United States Military Academy in the Phoenix metropolitan area.

Brigadier General Miller served as the Executive Officer, 2nd Battalion, 362nd Regiment, 91st Division in Norco, Calif. from 1996 – 1998. From June 1998 until September 2001, he commanded 2nd Battalion, 363rd Regiment, 91st Division, Phoenix, Ariz. From December 2001 to December 2004, Brigadier General Miller commanded the 164th Corps Support Group, Mesa, Ariz.

In May 2002, HHC 164th CSG mobilized and deployed to Karshi-Kahanabad, Uzbekistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. As Commander, Logistics Task Force 164, the senior logistics element of CJTF-180, Colonel Miller provided Command and Control of Combat Support and Combat Service Support elements in Afghanistan, Uzbekistan, and Pakistan while also commanding the Army airbase at Camp Stronghold Freedom, Karshi, Uzbekistan. Upon completing command, Brigadier General Miller served as Chief of Staff, 63rd Regional Readiness Command, Los Alamitos, Calif. providing command and control of and support to 15,000 USAR Soldiers in California, Arizona, and Nevada.

Brigadier General Miller was selected for assignment as Deputy Commanding General (Mobilization and Training) Combined Arms Support Command, Ft. Lee, Va. in April 2006.

In June 2007, he was reassigned as Deputy Commanding General, 21st Theater Sustainment Command and Commander, 7th Civil Support Command, Kaiserslautern, Germany.

Brigadier General Miller's awards and decorations include the Bronze Star, the Meritorious Service Medal with two Oak Leaf Clusters, the Army Commendation Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster, and Army Achievement Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster. He earned the Army's parachutist badge and is a graduate of the Ranger Course. Brigadier General Miller was awarded an Undergraduate Degree from the United States Military Academy, West Point, and Graduate Degrees from the United States Army War College and Central Michigan University. He is a graduate of the US Army's Field Artillery's Officer Basic Course, the Lance Missile Officer's Course, the Chemical Officer's Advance Course, the Supply Management Officer's Course, the United States Army Command and General Staff College, and Army War College.